GERMAN SUBS BROUGHT DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

The German Submarine U-53 Which Touched at an American Port Saturday Afternoon, Returned to Sea at Once and at Daylight Sunday Morning Began Its Terrible Work—Five Enemy Ships Were Torpedoed, a Majority of Their Crews Being Rescued by American Vessels—Many Allies Ships Took Refuge inside the Three Mile Limit—Eye Witnesses Say No Warning Was Given.

Long Branch, Oct. 9.—President Wilson announced today that as a result of the German submarine activity in the Western Atlantic, "the German government would be held to the fulfillment of its promises to the United States." He said he had no right to question Germany's willingness to fulfill her promises.

Story of Eye Witness.
Newport, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Henry B. Wilson, one of the passengers on the torpedoed British liner Stephano, sunk off Nantucket yesterday, said today that several members of the crew and one officer told her they distinctly saw the attacking submarine through their glasses and it was the U-61.

One of the crew of the destroyer Balch, arriving here with the survivors, said he saw a German supply ship attending the submarine.

American destroyers witnessed the destruction of some of the vessels. In one instance the American boats were quick to the scene. The German commander asked the destroyers Brenham and McDougall to make way for him to blow up his prey.

May Bring Complications.
Washington, Oct. 9.—The possibilities of diplomatic complications over the German submarine raid along the New England coast seemed today to point toward the allies as well as Germany. The officials, basing their conclusions on unofficial accounts, found no reason to change their first impression that the submarine operations had been conducted so far within the limitations of international law. The navy department today prepared to establish a patrol along the North Atlantic coast to make certain American neutrality is not violated.

Gave No Warning.
New York, Oct. 9.—The British steamer Strathdene, which was sunk yesterday, was fired on without warning, according to Captain Miller, arriving here, who said his first knowledge of the presence of the submarine was when shells fell on his ship yesterday morning.

Antilla Reached Port.
Newport News, Oct. 9.—The burning Ward liner Antilla reached Cape Charles at noon, according to a wireless. The burning vessel was being towed by the coast guard cutter Onondaga. The flames are under control.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—A German submarine, supposedly the U-53, which called at Newport Saturday, Sunday torpedoed and sank the British freight steamer Stephano and torpedoed and crippled the British freighter Kansas, but later allowed her to proceed.

Captain Smith of the Kansas reported he had been stopped by a wireless message to the captain of the Nantucket shoal lightship. He said the submarine showed no colors, but from his meager description of the craft naval men were satisfied it was the U-53.

A half hour later the submarine encountered the Stephano, commanded by Captain Wilson and under charter by the French line. A subsequent message from the Nantucket lightship stated that the Stephano had been sunk at 6 o'clock Sunday morning and the crew of twenty men were on the lightship. The steamer carried a crew of thirty-four, so there was some doubt as to whether the lightship had picked them all up or had correctly reported.

The Stephano sailed from New York for Bordeaux Saturday. She was of 4,321 tons and 375 feet in length. She was built in Greenwich in 1909 and was owned in Glasgow.

HEAVY JUDGEMENT IS RECOVERED

The case of Mrs. Charles Loftin et al vs. the I. & G. N. railway was completed in the district court Saturday afternoon and the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $8,000. On the night of July 1st this year Mr. Charles Loftin, who was a section foreman on the I. & G. N., was killed by an I. & G. N. train near Fountain switch.

The two children of Mrs. Loftin are minors and the judgment was rendered as follows: To Mrs. Loftin, $4,000; to each of the children, $2,000. After the settlement is made the court will appoint a guardian for the two minor children.

The case was one of the hardest legal battles that has been staged in Brazos county in a long time. During the trial a special train was run by the I. & G. N. to the point where Mr. Loftin was killed, taking along a number of men to be used as witnesses.

The plaintiff was represented by County Attorney Lamar Bethea and District Attorney W. C. Davis. The defense was represented by Judge J. W. Doremus and Attorney F. L. Henderson.

UNITED STATES TO TURN ALLIES DOWN

Will Not Deny Harbors to Submarines If No Violation of America's Neutrality.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 10.—The United States will refuse to accept the contention of the entente allies urging that neutrals deny the use of their harbors to all submarines, whether merchantmen or warships. Counselor Polk of the state department made his announcement today.

London, Oct. 10.—Increased activities on the battle front south of the Somme were reported by the French war office today, which says spirited artillery fighting occupied last night in Denicourt in the Lihons sector. The Bulgarian forces which are opposing the British troops in the region to the east of the Struma, in Greek Macedonia, returned to the hills northwest of Serz, says the British official statement issued today. The British occupied the towns of Kalandra and Homondos.

Continuing the advance in Transylvania, the Austro-German forces under General Von Falkenhayn captured the passes in the Hargita and Carolo mountains on both sides of Kronstadt. The statement adds the central powers are pressing the Rumanians, who lost twenty-five cannon in this sector in the course of the last

GINNERS REPORT SHOWS INCREASE

According to reports from Mr. Ed S. Derden, ginning census enumerator for Brazos county, the gins have already ginned 1,000 bales of cotton more this season than during the 1915 season. The ginner's reports complete last season showed a little over 15,000 bales of cotton were ginned during the 1915 season, and the report up to September 25th this year shows 16,637 bales had been already ginned, as against 9,491 at this date last season, a gain of 6,964 bales.

BRITISH PRESS ON SUBMARINE INCIDENT

(By Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 9.—The Manchester Guardian in an editorial today on the exploits of the U-53, declares its conviction of the desire of the United States to observe a strict neutrality. The Guardian says if the British Ambassador protested against the entry of the submarine into American waters and argued that any further submarines should be interned for the rest of the war, he would be expressing the views set out in a recent memorandum sent by the Allies to all neutral governments.

ADD FIVE CENTS TO EVERY ORDER

Bacon and Eggs Raised to Thirty Cents and Humble Pie Advanced to a Dime Per Cut.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Oct. 5.—The rising of food prices was impressed upon thousands of citizens Wednesday by the action of the largest dairy restaurant here in advancing prices. This corporation, which owns a chain of lunch rooms in New York and other cities, added 5 cents to the price of all the staple dishes.

Bacon and eggs and ham and eggs now cost 30 cents instead of 25 cents. A small steak is 30 cents instead of 25 cents; plain omelet has jumped from 15 to 20 cents. All pies from now on are 10 cents a cut.

The wholesale price of sugar advanced from 6 1/2 cents to 7 cents a pound on Wednesday and the retail price from 7 to 8 cents. The increased demand resulting from the war was given as the cause.

YOUNG TEACH THE OLD.

Grandmothers Take Cooking Lessons From Young Girls.

Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper, says:

"A county agent walked into the office of the dean of agriculture of the University of Missouri at Columbia three years ago. He asked the dean if two teachers of home economics could be sent to Johnson county to conduct cooking and sewing schools in the county schools for six weeks."

"The request was granted."

"A woman more than 80 years old and her sixteen children and grandchildren were among the students of one of the Missouri cooking and sewing schools. One woman had refused to take the teacher for an evening. Her husband was opposed to the farm bureau anyway. At the close of the session the first afternoon she went to the chairman and tried to get an evening with the teacher, saying, 'Why, she is just like the rest of us.' While in the homes these teachers, both of whom were young women just out of college, surprised these practical folks by the many practical things they could do. In one place the hostess had some unexpected company and the teacher made the cake for her. One man said, 'Any girl that can make hot rolls like that girl, can have a home at our house as long as she wants it.'"

"On these days these things were taught: Monday, bread making; Tuesday, pastry; Wednesday, cooking of meats and vegetables; Thursday, fruit and vegetables, home canning; Friday, sewing; Saturday, review on any points asked."

"One of the best results which has come from the teaching of home economics in country communities is the introduction of improved equipment in the home. Many women who had used primitive tools and utensils for years because they did not realize the saving in labor and time that up-to-date equipment would mean, have lessened their work by a third since their kitchens were furnished with a few of the new devices."

"A fireless cooker or an oil stove, which some of the women have regarded as impractical or involving new processes that would be hard to learn, proves its practicability in an hour's demonstration and the hard-working housewife goes home with the determination to possess one."

FOOD PRICES ARE ALL ADVANCING

Flour Higher Than at Any Time Since the Civil War—Potatoes and Meats Also High.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—Marked increase in the cost of living was shown in the rising tendency of food-stuffs on October 1st, reports of which are being received by the department of agriculture. Flour is selling at a higher price than at any time since the civil war, due principally to the shortage of the wheat crop, and the cost of potatoes mounted for the same reason. Meat prices have advanced 24 per cent over one year ago. Dairy products are also higher. Onions are 50 per cent higher and cabbage has advanced 40 per cent.

ELECTION FOR CHARTER COMMISSION

City Council at Called Meeting Passed Resolution Ordering Election Regarding Charter Commission.

At a called meeting yesterday afternoon of the city council of the City of Bryan a resolution was carried by the official board which authorizes that an election be called on the 7th day of November to see if the majority of the tax paying voters of the city of Bryan favor the appointment of a commission by the City Council of the City of Bryan to draft a new charter for the city of Bryan. Formal notice of which is found in another column of today's Eagle.

As the public generally is informed this is the first step to be taken whereby a new charter can be secured. If this measure is defeated further proceedings will be impossible. If the majority of the voters favor the plan then the commission will be appointed and the charter drawn and after due course of time, when same has been published according to the law covering same, the voters will then vote on the charter.

ALLEGED FORGER HAS BEEN LANDED

Third Attempt Made to Pass Worthless Checks and Third Time the Forger is Caught.

About four days ago a man by the name of O. L. Hill, who had been working on the Brazos county good roads, it is alleged, carried a check for $8 to the Daily Dry Goods Company and passed it with the name of C. C. Hanover signed to same. In the transaction Hill made a purchase and tendered the check in payment of same and received the balance in cash and got away before it was learned that the check was not valid. The matter was turned over to Sheriff Nunn and he immediately set out in a quiet manner to catch the alleged forger. A phone message was received this morning from Bay City to the effect that his man was in jail there and he will send after him immediately.

This is the third attempt made in the last few days to pass worthless checks in Bryan and every time the would-be forger has been landed behind the bars. As we have said before, it would be a hard matter for any one to pull this stunt in Bryan and get by with it.

BRYAN MADE FLOUR.

MRS. CORA WADE.

One of the dear, noble women of the Wellborn community passed away last Monday night at 10 o'clock when Mrs. Cora Wade was called by the Angel of Death. Mrs. Wade had been sick for several months, but not seriously until about two weeks before her death. Nearly all her close relatives were present at the time of her death. She will be missed and her kind words and deeds can never be forgotten. She was loved by all who knew her.

To the many friends who so kindly attended her, we offer lasting gratitude, and may this sad event prove a blessing to all and may it warn you to so live that when the Master calls you may be ready.

It is hard to give her up,
But O it is sweet to know
That she is gone to be with God
Where sorrow can never go.
We shall meet her no more here below.

In this world of sorrow and care,
But at God's own good time
We shall meet her over there.
MRS. SAM ROYDER,
Her Niece.

THIS MAN HAS A CHEESE FACTORY ON HIS FARM

Farm and Fireside says:

"Making cheese from the milk of a single dairy has the disadvantage of small output in most cases, but the advantage of complete control of all operations. Fred Belke, a Wisconsin dairyman, has conducted a farm-size cheese factory for seven years in the following manner."

"He has a herd of 15 cows which produce from 250 to 300 pounds of milk a day. His building is 20 feet wide by 30 feet long, with a partition dividing it into two rooms, each 15 by 20 feet. One room is used for cheese making, and the other is his boiler and tool room. There is a door between them. His engine is a steam engine of upright pattern."

"In the cellar below the cheese-room is his curing room, and in one corner of this he has a force pump to draw water from a well ten feet from the building. The curing room also has one important feature essential for making cheese of high quality—namely, a system for securing fresh cold air. This comes through clay pipes connected with the well, and he has a pump for supplying the fresh air according to the amount needed."

"In the winter time the curing-room is heated to the proper temperature with steam heat. Mr. Belke not only makes excellent cheese but he has been fortunate in having a steady market for his entire product. He never has made enough to satisfy the demand. Brick cheese is one of the varieties he has made to a large extent, and has secured as much as 14 pounds of brick cheese from 100 pounds of milk. The factory is equipped so that butter can also be made if desired."

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts Like Dynamite on a Sluggish Liver and You Lose a Day's Work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50c buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

PRIZE FIGHT AT MUMFORD.

Reports came to the city this morning that one of the best prize fights ever pulled off in the Mumford Bottom was staged last night. The fight was between Billie Brewer, the Bryan lightweight, and Ted Black, a middle-weight pugilist from New Orleans. The fight lasted nine rounds and seemed to be a draw all the way through until Brewer, who is much lighter than Black, began to find that his wind was getting scarce and it became hard for him to breathe. In the ninth and last round Black tapped his opponent a rather hard upper cut in the left side and floored him. He was unable to come back on time and was counted out.

The fight was refereed by some very prominent men from Bryan, who report that everyone present enjoyed the bout very much.

ATHLETICS, HORSE RACES FEATURED

Texas Universities and Colleges Will Battle at the Cotton Palace.

SOLID WEEK OF HORSE RACING

Track Has Been Put in First-Class Condition—Generous Purses Are Offered by the Exposition Management.

Waco, Texas.—No exposition in the country can boast of as many high class football games as the Cotton Palace.
The finest athletic field in the country has been constructed at the exposition grounds. The field is beautifully sodded and is declared by gridiron stars to be the finest in the land.

The first game will be played on the afternoon of the opening day, Saturday, November 4, between Baylor University and Southwestern University of Georgetown.
It will be a scrap between the Baptists and the Methodists.

The next battle will be between Meridian Normal of Meridian and the Alexander Collegiate Institute of Jacksonville.
Alexander won last year. Meridian will try to get even this year.
It will take place on Monday, November 6.

On November 10 the Waco and Austin high schools will play for the State championship. These teams are evenly matched and a terrific struggle is bound to be the result.

The biggest battle of all will be staged on November 11. It will be between
A. & M. College and Baylor University.
It will attract visitors from all over the State.
Special trains will be run.

Six Days' Horse Racing.

Waco, Texas.—There will be six days of the finest horse racing in the South at the Cotton Palace. The races will commence on November 13 and will continue every day until November 18 inclusive.

The Cotton Palace track is admittedly the fastest track in the Southwest.
No expense has been spared in getting it in a condition second to none.

The indications are that more horses will be entered than last year. Horse owners in all parts of the country have signified their intention to make a try for the generous purses that have been offered by the exposition.

The people of Texas love good, clean horse racing and they will find that kind of sport at the Cotton Palace.

MAMMOTH NAVAL EXHIBIT WILL BE BROUGHT TO TEXAS.

Texas Cotton Palace, at Waco,
Will Show Uncle Sam's Sea-
Fighting Paraphernalia.

Waco, Texas.—The United States government at Washington has a high opinion of the Texas Cotton Palace.
They realize that it is one of the best patronized expositions in the country, and that its educational value is unsurpassed. The naval department has therefore arranged to have a large naval exhibit at the Cotton Palace.
It will be the first time that this exhibit has been shown at any inland city in the country. This is, indeed, a remarkable compliment to the Cotton Palace.

There will be three perfect battleship models in the exhibit, valued at from $12,000 to $20,000 each. These were the original models in building the ships at the naval yards.

The directors of the Cotton Palace were required to give a bond of $100, 000 to obtain the exhibit.

In addition to the models there will be new shells, used in the 18-inch guns, samples of smokeless powder, and other interesting articles.

Six hundred and thirty-five square feet of floor space will be required for the exhibit.

RAILROAD MEN'S DAY.

Officials and Employees to Visit Cotton
Palace November 18.

Waco, Texas.—An entirely new day has been added to the many attractive features of the Cotton Palace. It will be known as railway and express men's day. It will be held on Saturday, November 18. All railroad officials and all railway and express employees in the State will be invited to be present.
Committees from the employees will be requested to make a program for the day.

LOW RAILROAD RATES.

Texas Carriers Expect Large Crowds
for Cotton Palace at Waco.

Waco, Texas.—No exposition in the State has been granted lower excursion rates than the Cotton Palace.
Railroad officials look upon the Cotton Palace as the best patronized exposition in Texas, and have therefore arranged the rates accordingly. Every ticket agent in the State will be prepared to give full and complete information to all persons desiring to visit the Cotton Palace. Do not fail to ask him for full particulars about the rates for every day of the exposition.

Large parties desiring special trains are requested to get in touch with Ralph McLendon, director of transportation for the Texas Cotton Palace, Waco, Texas.

LIVELY CHASE MADE FOR THIEF

Negro Helps Himself to Mens Furnishing Goods and Gives Officers a Lively Chase.

About 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon,
Morgan Crawford, colored, dropped into the store of A. M. Waldrop & Co. on Main street and proceeded to appropriate for his own use, a pair of trousers and a good hat. When he started to leave the store Mr. Marshall Bullock discovered what the
"coon" was up to and gave the alarm and no sooner had he done this than the negro made for the front door dropping the hat and carrying the trousers with him. Right on his heels out on Main street was Bullock and Mr. Waldrop and following them came about twenty cadets from the College who were in the city spending the afternoon. The fleet footed thief soon showed Mr. Waldrop that the latter could not run at all so this gentleman gave up the chase. About three blocks down the street the crowd pursuing the thief had grown to about thirty-five and among them was the law. Powell Harvey, the colored deputy Sheriff from the Brazos bottom joined in the chase and after running the fugitive about a mile and a half caught him and brought him to jail.

The only thing lacking in this affair
Saturday afternoon was a representative of some picture film corporation to make the picture. The trousers were recovered.

COTTON FIRE.

A car load of cotton consigned to W.
L. Moody & Co. of Galveston caught fire Wednesday about five miles west of Bryan on the I. & G. N. railroad and was totally destroyed. The cotton was being shipped from Hishbank on a flat car and had not been compressed.
There were 54 bales on the car.

POSTED.

Notice is hereby given that all my farm and pasture lands are posted and all trespassers will be prosecuted as the law directs.

NEW BREED OF CATTLE.

The Ayrshire to Be Introduced by A.
and M. College.

Texas is to have a new breed of dairy cattle. The Ayrshire, one of the best breeds of the North and East, will be introduced into Texas this fall
by the A. and M. College dairy farm.
J. W. Ridgway, professor of dairy husbandry at the college, left Saturday for Springfield, Mass., where he will attend the National Dairy Show October 12th to 20th. The Official Dairy Instructors' Association will be in session in conjunction with the dairy show October 16th to 17th.

Big breeders of Ayrshire cattle will be visited by Prof. Ridgway. He will buy four registered females and one registered bull. The Ayrshire came from Scotland originally. In Massachusetts and New York especially they have proven highly profitable.
They are a red and white cow, with upturned horns resembling those of a deer, and are a combination Holstein and Jersey with reference to production and richness of milk. Mr. Ridgway believes that they will be well adapted to Texas. They will be used also for instruction. That will give the college registered stock from the four recognized breeds, Jersey, Guernsey, Holstein and Ayrshire. The college has one of the most modern farms in the South.

PRaises Bell County Fair.

Prof. J. C. Burns of A. and M. Says It Was Best He Ever Saw.

That the Bell County Fair, just closed at Temple, was one of the best agricultural fairs he ever has seen is the statement of John C. Burns, professor of animal husbandry at A. and M. College. Prof. Burns returned Saturday from Temple, where he acted as judge of all classes of live stock at the fair.

"The stock entered there would have done credit to any of the larger fairs," said Prof. Burns. "Some of the best stock I have ever seen was entered.
Bell county is alive on the subject of improved agriculture, and of course that carries with it an increased interest in better live stock." The Temple fair is under the general direction of Col. P. L. Downs, banker, agriculturist and graduate of
A. and M. College. Colonel Downs is president of the fair.

FIGHTING IN AMERICAN WATERS.

The European war has been brought to our very doors and the sound of hostile guns has been heard on our shores. The slain have been brought for sepulture in our soil and the maimed and wounded to be cared for in our hospitals. It does not sound good, either; neither does it feel good. It gives one a sense of revulsion that is not far removed from a feeling of resistance. We are a peaceful nation and we do not like for the fighting to be brought almost within our own harbors. We would like for them to take their guns from beyond our hearing and their stench of battle from beyond the reach of our nostrils.

The German submarine U-53, a war vessel fully armed and equipped, with plenty of fuel and provisions, not wanting even so much as a bucket of water, touched at an American port Saturday afternoon, delivered a big batch of mail for the German ambassador at Washington, made a few complimentary remarks, bowed and scraped a few times, and put back to sea, as the law books say, with a mind fatally bent on mischief. Before many hours had passed the boom of her guns was heard, the ships of the allies in that vicinity began to go down, the air was filled with wireless signals of distress and the whole surface of the sea was quickly covered with the wreckage of vessels, dead and dying seamen—the flotsam and jetsam of cruel war.

In rapid succession five vessels went down, enemy vessels of Germany, some of the crews and passengers of which were rescued by ships of the United States and some were not. There was a hurrying of wireless messages of warning and many other vessels in that locality hastily sought safety within the three-mile zone.

The end in all probability is not yet, as there are said to be other submarines in the same locality and they are evidently conveyed by a supply ship, as evidenced by the complete preparedness of the U-53 when she touched our shores Saturday afternoon. Her captain stated the voyage across required seventeen days, and in all reason she would have needed something had not help been near by at all times.

It was a sickening episode, to say the least of it, and one the Eagle hopes will not be repeated again.

In our opinion the United States should change its 24-hour rule, and not permit an armed vessel from any belligerent nation, no matter whether it comes to bring mail or what its mission, to come within the three-mile limit.

President Wilson, by his great judgment, his calm and undisturbed demeanor, his unswerving policy, has kept us out of the war. Now let's keep the war as far away from us as possible. The sound of battle makes us nervous.

OUR WORST ENEMY.

The Eagle has earnestly advocated a mosquito campaign at the beginning of each year to rid the city of this dangerous and tormenting pest, but our efforts have brought only indifferent results. The people have never come to fully realize its importance and for that reason public sentiment has not made an absolute demand for the eradication of the mosquito. As it is none too early to begin laying plans for a campaign that should be waged soon after the first of January, we quote the following in regard to this great enemy of humanity from the pen of Col. R. T. Milner in the Rusk County News:

"The two families of mosquitoes that transmit yellow fever and malaria have killed more people in the South than were killed in the civil war—far more. From the first settlement of this country until a few years ago the yellow fever was dreaded each year, and it generally came, sometimes in a mild form and frequently it amounted to a great plague which caused death and lamentation in all the cities of the South. Science discovered that a certain insect of the distinguished mosquito family was responsible, wholly responsible, for all the yellow fever in the world, and that mosquito was summarily put out of business and yellow fever has been heard of no more. The awful dread that came each succeeding summer is felt no more in the land, for the terriblest enemy of mankind, and for years one that was thought to be a scourge sent by Providence and therefore unconquerable, yielded to the power of the laboratory and passed out of existence. But there is a close relative of the yellow fever mosquito as numerous in the South as grasshoppers in Kansas, and the poison which they daily and nightly inject into the bodies of human beings is killing thousands and thousands, besides spreading poverty and suffering over the land. Positively mankind in the South never confronted an enemy like the mosquito that transmits malaria. Good men from the pulpit and the rostrum bemoan in sackcloth and ashes the terrible fate of Mexico and Europe, and fail to call the congregation's attention to the enemy that is present right then and there, entrenched and fortified in a thousand ways, with recruits daily too numerous to mention. Do you imagine that you hear the daily roar of cannon and rifle that has been going on around Verdun for months? Have you not imagined that you heard the groans of the wounded as they passed from life unto death? Right then, at the very moment when you were agonizing over the story of carnage, suffering and death, as Teuton and Celt met to conquer or die, there were millions of the enemy at your very door; yea, already many of them in contact with the bodies of your children, piercing their flesh and infusing into their veins a poison as deadly, if not as sudden, as the bullets of the armies of Europe. The enemy is here, and the lives he is taking away would be no more precious or valuable if taken by Mexican bandits."

LOOKING FOR A LARGER POTATO.

Our old friend Buchanan of the Bryan Eagle is about to have a fit because he has been unable to discover a sweet potato to outweigh the one reported through the columns of the Examiner-Review a week or so ago. He skirmished about for a few days and reports one tipping the beam at ten pounds—just enough to even up our tuber. Buck is ordinarily truthful, but when it comes to any other country raising bigger potatoes and punkins than his old country, he blows up like a toy balloon. What we want to know is, who is going to fetch us a potato that will lay the other one in the shade? We simply have got to outdistance Buck or there will be no living with him.—Navasota Examiner.

Well, you've got us beat on good fishin' and huntin', on good water and beautiful flower gardens, and we've just got to contend for the championship on something. The truth is though, Ed, you are jealous of our agricultural and horticultural products and have been ever since we sprung that 14-foot collard on you a few years ago and proved our statement by competent testimony. That never has set well with you, no more than your fish story of catching a bass in the Navasota Fishing Club lake that was 12 inches long and had a mouth 13 inches wide, has set well with us. You should not want all the honors.

THE PRESIDENT AT OMAHA.

The trip of President Wilson to Omaha was one continuous ovation and has inspired the President himself and leading Democrats of the country with a stronger hope that he will sweep the Middle West. The President's address in Omaha was a marvel of constructive, nation-making fundamentals and has rarely, if ever, been equaled by any statesman of this country. Following are a few of his concrete declarations:

"In order to carry out a program you must have unification of spirit in America. There can be no program without a unified course behind it." "It is very important that the statesmen of other nations should understand America. We have held off from the conflagration in Europe because we wanted to play a different part."

"The causes of the European war are not plainly known." "But Europe should understand us," he said. "We are holding off because when we use the force of this nation we want to know what we are using it for."

"There is as much fight in America as in any nation in the world."

"We want always to hold the force of America to fight for the rights of mankind, not for the rights of property. But in fighting for these things we should know what the touchstone is. We must have absolute allegiance to America. We must be truly American. The rights of humanity are the essence of freedom."

"We want all the world to know that we are ready to use all our force to maintain peace among mankind. The starting of wars can never again be the private concern of any one nation."

"We must use all force, moral and physical, to uphold a league of nations, to uphold the peace of this world."

A few more speeches by Col. Roosevelt and the great American jury—the people—would re-elect President Wilson without leaving the jury box.

HAS RIGHT IDEA.

State Press of the Galveston News has a splendid conception of the mission of the A. and M. College and expresses same in his regrets at not being able to attend the opening exercises, as follows:

"State Press was sorry to be unable to avail himself of President Bizzell's invitation to attend the opening exercises of the forty-first session of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas. State Press regards the Texas A. and M. College as one of the best educational institutions in America. To teach a young man to do as well as to think is certainly an ideal to be aspired to by any responsible schoolmaster, and the M. and M. College may safely be classed as a leader among that steadily growing number of sturdy schools which are discarding the medieval conception of education in favor of the modern idea. It is not, however, that the young man who desires a cloistered culture can not obtain it at the A. and M. He can, for the curriculum is diversified. But it may be said with assurance that the dilettante is much less desired there than the practical student, the student who comes to learn 'how to do as well as to don't.' In short, the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas graduates producers rather than consumers, it caters to the future rather than to the past, to the forward-looking rather than to the backward-looking. It does."

A MODERN GOSHEN.

The interior of Mitchell Brothers Bank has on display a prodigious assortment of the products of our magical soil. Among the tempting delicacies are several mammoth yellow yam potatoes presented by S. S. Hancock of Bishopville, and ears of corn that are suggestive of the years of jubilee, grown by P. M. Peace, near here; paper-shell pecans, hanging in tempting clusters, from the orchard of Dr. R. S. Glass, and a banana that would tempt a dago, from the vineyard hills of H. S. Morehead, Esq., and canned fruits and vegetables in such profusion that we do not marvel that this country is conceded to be the promised land.—Franklin Central Texan.

Verily Robertson county is the land of "Goshen," a land of "milk and honey," of "fritter trees and lakes of maple syrup." The wonder is that our good friend Editor Estes can tear himself away from it long enough to go down to Austin, that barren and desolate land, to attend a session of the Texas legislature to which he has been elected.

EXODUS OF NEGROES.

An Atlanta dispatch to the Christian Science Monitor says sentiment in favor of some action which will prevent wholesale exodus of negroes from the South to points north of the Ohio river appears to be growing rapidly in many Southern states. The matter has already been called to public attention in Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi, the states most seriously affected, and it is believed that recent developments of the labor situation in the Southland make some steps desirable.

When the demand for negro labor started the department of labor aided in sending negro laborers to the North. The first application came from the Erie railroad. This was followed by a similar request from the Pennsylvania.

Now negroes are being promised higher wages by northern agents. Thousands are going to Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Indianapolis and other Northern cities.

In Mississippi the situation is said to be acute.

Negroes are leaving certain cities by car loads. Alabama negroes are going to points in Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana and Pennsylvania. The city of Montgomery has passed an ordinance making it a crime to entice labor from that point. Aberdeen has passed an ordinance whereby a labor agent must pay $250 as a privilege tax.

The brother in black is human. The labor agent promises him higher wages, better quarters and greater liberty in the North. This wins him.—Fort Worth Record.

The Record says the promise of "higher wages, better quarters and greater liberty" wins him. Now if these promises are made good why should they not win him? Of course if they are not, then the people of the South should take steps to protect him from unscrupulous frauds and false promises.

If the negro can get better wages in the North than here, as the Eagle sees it, no impediment should be thrown in his way. We have preached about the negro's condition, his failure to advance as a race, and yet have we ever seriously asked ourselves the questions: Are we not partially responsible? Have we done all for the negro we could? Have we not discriminated against him in wages, thereby lessening his chances of home owning, of securing an education and holding him back in various ways?

True, the South has done much for the negro; it has given him protection, built schools and colleges for him, built hospitals for his treatment, kept other sections from taking advantage of his ignorance, etc., for all of which the negro owes the South much, and should be sure before he seeks a home among strangers. However, if the opportunity is afforded for him to better his condition, the Eagle does not believe any obstacle should be placed in his way.

A headline says, "Mother Jones told the women to raise hell and they did." Some years ago Mary Ellen Lease told the farmers of Kansas if they would have freedom they must raise less corn and raise more hell. They just kept on raising corn and now Kansas is one of the wealthiest states in the Union. Raising the product recommended by Mother Jones never did make anybody any money.—Austin American.

Gov. Hogg's advice to the farmers was to raise more hogs and hominy and less hell, and those who have stayed with the old commoner's advice are the ones whose credit is good at the stores and who have money in the bank. Hell is an easy crop to sow and there is much reaping, but mighty little money in it.

Notwithstanding there is more money to be made in Texas by raising cotton and peanuts than by holding office, every time a vacancy in public life is even hinted at, the woods are filled and the air surcharged with various and sundry applicants for the lace. The itch for office appears to be an incurable disease with a vast number of patriots.—Denison Herald.

Incurable? Of course it is. It is also contagious, communicable and hereditary.—Austin American.

And every fellow who has ever had his disease can be counted on to re-appear every two years.

The establishment of a flouring mill in Bryan is a matter of congratulation for the whole people. It is not only an important addition to the commercial assets of the city, but will help in many other ways. It gives employment to a number of people, thereby swelling the retail business of the city, guarantees the quality of our bread, both flour and meal, is one more manufacturing industry for Bryan and adds to the city's importance and dignity generally. The enterprise of the Lawlers, founders of the business, is to be commended.

Cotton broke 60 points this morning almost in the twinkling of an eye. It will take it just about that long to break every farmer in this country if they go hog wild and plant the high lands and low lands, the byways and hedges, the turn-row, the cowpens and the gardens in cotton. Diversification is still the farmer's only hope, regardless of 16-cent cotton this year.

The President remarked in so many words that Mrs. Wilson was better to look at than he was. This candid statement led Col. George Bailey of the Houston Post to say that once more truth raises herself erect and contemplates her possession of the eternal years of God.

The Gilmore injunction in the railroad commissioner muddle was made permanent by Judge Swayne of Fort Worth. This makes it impossible for the executive committee to place any name on the ballot as a successor to Commissioner Williams. We shall see what we shall see.

Announcement is made that former Senator J. W. Bailey is soon to become a citizen of Fort Worth. That he will spend the remainder of his years there, and be gathered home to the fathers from the Panther City.

George Bailey gives as Biblical authority for the defeat of the Republicans, the 17th verse of the Ninth Psalm, which says: "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God."

Snap Shots says if the price of flour goes much higher, the patty cake song of the babies will have to be cut out.

Sixteen cent cotton sounds like a dream, but it has been realized in Bryan this week.

LIEUT. MORRIS ARRIVES.

Lieut. William H. H. Morris, first lieutenant Ninth Infantry, who has been appointed assistant commandant of cadets at A. and M. College, arrived at College today to assume his new duties. Captain Muller, commandant, arrived before the opening of school, Sept. 25th.

Lieut. Morris graduated from West Point in the class of 1910. He is a native of New Jersey. For the past year he has been stationed at Laredo.

U. D. C.

The local chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met in the chapter room at Carnegie Hall on Friday afternoon. The occasion was of more than usual importance, for it was the annual celebration of Reagan Day and also the regular election of officers for the coming year. The president, Mrs. W. G. Talliaferro, called the chapter to order at the appointed hour and Mrs. P. M. Raysor, historian, conducted the program of the day as follows:

Vocal Solo—"Garden of My Heart," Mrs. George Adams.
Paper—"In Memory of John H. Reagan," Mrs. Ralph Howell.
Instrumental Solo, Miss Frances Mike.

At the conclusion of the program the chapter was called into business session. The result of the election of officers was as follows:

Mrs. W. G. Talliaferro, president; Mrs. O. B. Love, first vice president; Mrs. H. G. Fulgham, second vice president; Mrs. R. H. Harrison, third vice president; Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, fourth vice president; Mrs. Walter J. Higgs, recording secretary; Mrs. E. W. Crenshaw, treasurer.

Delegates from L. S. Ross Chapter to the National U. D. C. convention which meets in Dallas November 7, and to the State convention in Corpus Christi December 5, were elected as follows:

Delegates—Mrs. W. G. Talliaferro, Mrs. H. C. Fulgham, Mrs. Mary Hunt Affleck, Mrs. Ida Shepard, Mrs. Henry Cline.

Alternates—Mrs. O. B. Love, Mrs. Albert Buchanan, Mrs. Houston Cole, Mrs. W. J. Higgs, Mrs. Fred Taylor.

SPOKE AT M. E. CHURCH.

Dr. Goddard of Galveston Delivered Lecture on China.

Dr. O. E. Goddard, pastor of the First Methodist church of Galveston, preached to the students and campus residents at A. and M. College chapel yesterday morning. By special invitation of the pastor and congregation he filled the pulpit of the First Methodist church in this city last night.

The discourse last night was both a lecture and a sermon and the Eagle does not hesitate to state, was among the most interesting ever heard in Bryan.

His theme last night was "China," and his address was authoritative, as Dr. Goddard was located for a number of years in China, being vice president of one of the great Chinese universities, located at Shanghai. He both speaks and writes the Chinese language.

The speaker contrasted the people of that country with the people of this, showing the things in which they differ and the things in which they are alike. He described it as a heterogeneous outside and a homogenous inside. Outwardly they do things differently and are different, but inwardly, their hearts, hopes, ambitions and aspirations were pretty much the same. He gave a glowing description of the pitiful condition of the people of that country and closed with an eloquent appeal to Christians to become keenly awakened to the spirit of missions, to the end that the moral, spiritual and general condition of that benighted people might be uplifted.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

Mr. J. S. Smith has just launched a new enterprise in Bryan in the way of a planing mill. The enterprise is known as the Crescent Wood Working Shop and is located on Regent avenue just across from the Bryan & College interurban station. Mr. Smith has installed a Universal wood working machine of the latest type. All machines in the plant have safety appliances and it is almost impossible for an employee to be injured. Any kind of work turned out by the larger planing mills in the city can be done in this new shop. All kinds of cabinet work can be done and the Eagle bespeaks for Mr. Smith a nice business in his new enterprise. The machinery installed required an outlay of about $1,000 and is an evidence of Mr. Smith's faith in the growth of the city of Bryan.

SECTION HAND SEVERELY HURT.

Manuel Sansus, a Mexican section hand on the H. & T. C., was quite severely hurt yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock while at work on the Thompson creek bridge north of this city. He was shoveling gravel on the side of the bridge, which has a gravel deck, and in some manner lost his footing and fell about twenty feet to the ground. His left arm was broken between the elbow and wrist and a very deep gash cut over his right eye. Foreman J. B. Howell of this gang brought Sansus to this city immediately and gave him medical attention and at 4:15 yesterday afternoon sent him to the company's hospital at Houston. Mr. Howell said he had not more than five minutes before warned the men about walking over the loose gravel near the edge of the bridge and no sooner had he done so than Sansus was twenty feet below, bleeding like a hog.

RECEIVE INVITATION TO OPENING OF NEW STATION.

President A. M. Waldrop and Secretary W. A. McElroy of the Commercial Association are in receipt of an invitation to attend the formal opening exercises of the new Union Station at Dallas Saturday, October 14th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

CHANGE MADE IN BRYAN DAY AT WACO COTTON PALACE.

Secretary W. A. McElroy of the Commercial Association is in receipt of a letter today announcing that the management of the Waco Cotton Palace has seen fit to grant his request in changing Bryan Day at the exhibition from November 10 to November 11. This change will make A. and M. College Day and Bryan Day come together. On this date the Baylor University football team and the Aggie team will play football.

It has been suggested and probably will be agitated that the Commercial Association arrange for a special train on this day to go along with the College people and have a big Bryan parade through the streets of Waco. This would no doubt prove to be a big thing for the city of Bryan and it is hoped that the matter will be taken up at the proper time and the stunt pulled off. If Secretary McElroy decides to get up this trip you can rest assured that it will be gotten up in fine style, as he never does things half way.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—Last bulletin gave forecast of disturbance to cross continent Oct 7 to 11 warm wave 6 to 10, cool wave 9 to 13. During this period temperatures will go from unusually high about Oct. 5 to below normal about 12. Heavy rains are expected with this storm and the storm intensities will be about normal. These rains will be very encouraging to those interested in winter grain and a large acreage will be sown on account of good conditions and present prices. Those who do not get advices from this bureau of crop-weather information rely wholly on a guess when they plant and sow.

Next warm wave will reach Vancouver near Oct 11 and temperatures will rise on all the Pacific slope. It will cross Rocky ridge by close of Oct. 12 plains section 13, meridian 90, great lakes and Ohio valleys 14, eastern sections 15, reaching Newfoundland about Oct 16. Storm wave will follow about one day behind warm wave and cool wave about one day behind storm wave.

This will be one of the most severe storms of the month. It will also cause one of the heaviest rains of October. Temperatures of the week will average lower than usual and killing frosts will go south of the average line not far from October 17.

Another warm wave will reach Vancouver Oct. 17 and temperatures will rise on all the Pacific slope. It will cross Rocky ridge by close of 18, plain section 19, meridian 90, great lakes and Ohio valleys 20, eastern sections 21, reaching Newfoundland near Oct. 22. Storm wave will follow about one day behind warm wave and cool wave about one day behind storm wave.

This storm will be most severe in the far middle west and will then lose force until it is out on the Atlantic about Oct. 24 where it will become a dangerous sea storm. About Oct. 26 a tropical hurricane will organize in the West Indies and will be an object of considerable interest for a week or ten days following. At that point we will deliver it to the U. S. Weather Bureau as it has telegraphic connections with all the West Indies sections and can then make fairly good guesses as to its future route.

That hurricane will cause some heavy rains in the cotton states, not good for cotton, and it will cause a cold wave in the northwestern sections near last of October and a wave of moderately high temperatures.

Heaviest rains of the month will occur during week centering on October 26th.

We have written and published a genealogical history of the Norman French, their ancestors and descendants, to be placed in the principal libraries of the States and Canada. It is not for sale but for free use of our friends. It begins with the Wends, B. C. 600, traces them thru their conquest of the Roman empire, the conquering of England 1066 by the armies of William the Conqueror, their migrations to America, the two branches known here as the English emigrants and the Scotch-Irish, their dominance in the American revolution. A majority of the people of the thirteen colonies, and the officers of Washington's, Lee's and Grant's armies and a majority of our presidents have been of that race. Wilson and Hughes are descendants of the Norman French.

CARRANZA WILL VISIT OLD HOME

Elaborate Preparations Being Made at Saltillo, Mexico, for Annual Visit of Chief Executive.

(By Associated Press.)

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 9.—Preparations are being made at Saltillo, Mexico, it has been learned here, for the forthcoming visit of General Venustiano Carranza, head of the de facto government of Mexico, to his home there some time this month. Triumphant arches and electrical decorations are being arranged on a lavish scale, according to passengers from the interior city.

The first chief has been accustomed to pay a visit almost annually to his former home, where he was a lawyer before coming sponsor for the constitutionalist cause.

On his 1915 trip home General Carranza visited several other cities of Northern Mexico, coming as far north as Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle pass, and Uruapan, where he held a conference with Governor James E. Ferguson of Texas.

MRS. CORA WADE.

At 10 o'clock Monday evening, October 4, 1916, the angel of death spread his pinions over the happy home of Mr. T. E. Wade and took from him his dear wife, Mrs. Cora Wade. Not a happier home was there in all this country than this and now its sunshine is shut out and darkness and sorrow have taken its place.

Mrs. Wade had been ill for a long time. The physician's skill and loving hands ministered to her, but to no avail, and at the hour mentioned her gentle spirit, as peaceful as a summer evening cloud, drifted away to her eternal rest.

She was born May 3, 1857, and was married December 10, 1873, to Mr. T. E. Wade, and to them were born five sons, namely, Messrs. Lewey, Camillus, Jimmie, Percy and Jesse Wade, all of whom are left to mourn her untimely death. Only one son is married. The other four are at home with their father. One grandson, little J. C., son of Camillus, and the pride of grandmothers' heart, is also left. We would say to his mother: Laura, be mother and sister both to this family.

Mrs. Wade united with the Baptist church many years ago and lived in our midst many years, and was of a loving and lovable disposition and possessed those rare Christian virtues which endeared her to all who knew her.

To the heartbroken family we faintly would offer words of comfort, but the words turn to ashes on our lips and we can but point them to Him who out of the compassion of His heart hath said: "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted."

The funeral was conducted from the family home at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the interment was made at Wellborn cemetery. A large crowd of relatives and friends was present to pay her the last sad tribute of respect.

But in the darkest hour of affliction, when the hand of our Master seems upon us, the angel of hope draws aside the celestial curtains and a flood of light illumines our heart. We see across the years when we shall join those who have gone before. Yes, boys, you will meet her whom you so recently laid away, her in whom was centered the hopes and ambitions of your young lives. She has gone where the weary are blessed and the mourner looks up and is glad.

DOG AND PONY SHOW.

Riding Hour for the Children on Elephants and Camels.

Every circus must have a spectacle, a "spec," as many of the inhabitants of white top land call it. But to the Gentry Brothers' show, coming to Bryan on Saturday, October 14, befalls the honor of featuring not only a spectacle, but a children's riding hour, when the pages of story books are turned and the dreams of childhood come true. Immediately after the matinee each day the Gentry elephants, the camels and the two hundred ponies are mounted by a host of laughing and shouting kiddies and it seems that the menagerie tent of the circus contains all the youthful happiness in the universe. And the animals like it, too. The little eyes of the huge elephants twinkle gleefully and the ponies neigh their pleasure. Even the jungle beasts cease their deep-throated growlings during this magic period—"the children's riding hour." Show grounds on South Dallas street. Washington street entrance for autos.

ALLEN ACADEMY WON GREAT VICTORY

In Good Clean Game of Foot Ball Calvert is Defeated by a Score of 13 to 0—Boys Entertained.

The Allen Academy boys more than sustained the school's reputation for prowess in athletics yesterday afternoon by defeating the Calvert High School bunch by a score of 13 to 0. This score does not tell half the story. As matters have run in the past, Allen would not consider this much of a victory for Calvert has never been considered a formidable rival in football. But this year they were reported to have an unusual team of veterans. They have been in training during the summer and have played two games piling up big scores against their opponents. The Allen team is composed mostly of new and untried men and this was to be their very first game of the season. Calvert came upon the field confident of victory, according to the statements of their supporters. The Allen boys only knew the reputation they had to sustain, and they knew their own indomitable determination to fight for their colors to the last ditch.

The first score was made in the third quarter by a forward pass from DeLaFosse to Griffith, who made a great catch in the end zone. DeLaFosse kicked goal. The second score was made in the last quarter by Dodgins splitting the line for ten yard gain and the goal, this goal was missed. The Allen boys line held like a stone wall and time after time the Calvert team hit them only to lose ground. Captain DeLaFosse at quarter showed remarkable generalship and his work was the feature of the game. Griffith at right end, Hatter at Half and Dodgins at Full were also good factors in the game.

In the matter of entertainment, Calvert did herself proud. The principal of the Academy and the boys are alike in their expressions of appreciation of the splendid reception accorded them. The Calvert people certainly have the social graces and they know how to display them. To begin with a strong committee of prominent business men composed largely of old Allen boys, motored to Bryan several days ago and extended a cordial and pressing invitation to the principals to bring the entire school, faculty and students to Calvert as the guests of the town. This generous invitation could not be accepted, but thirty representatives of the school did go. They were met at the station and driven to the hotel in a half dozen cars. The same conveyances later carried every Allen man to and from the ball park. The Allen boys were entertained at the Cottage Hotel, where they were well provided for and served with an excellent supper. From 8:30 to 12:00 o'clock a reception was held in the beautiful new city hall. Here the Calvert High School boys and girls, and other citizens, extended to the Allen boys every courtesy and made them forget in a continual round of pleasure how stiff and sore some of them were from their fierce gridiron struggle.

A PIONEER VISITOR.

P. W. McGee of Mesa, Grimes county, was a visitor in Bryan today and was the guest of his old friend, Gen. H. B. Stoddard. Mr. McGee is one of the Texas pioneers and was born in the state 71 years ago. He said his friends were in 1876. He is comprehensive about his trip over to the Brazos country capital, but that he had placed himself under the wing of his old friend, Gen. Stoddard, and felt sure of keeping out of the clutches of Mr. McGee is in fine health and very active for a man of his age.

INTERESTING FACTS OF VERDUN BATTLE

St. Louis Young Man Returns and Gives His Personal Experiences as Ambulance Man.

(Correspondence of Associated Press) St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 6.—Stories of the great battle for Verdun have been brought to St. Louis by Elmore McNeill Bostwick, who has returned to America after driving a hospital ambulance in the French army. He is the son of the public librarian of St. Louis.

As soon as he arrived in France, Bostwick was assigned to the Verdun sector and was there when the great German offensive began.

"At the beginning of the attack," he said, "the French were pressed to the utmost. The commanders had to increase their fighting force from 200,000 to nearly a million, and for two weeks affairs were considerably disorganized. The weather was cold and food was short. The pounding of the German guns filled the medical posts with wounded. At first we were short of drivers and each man had to remain on duty nineteen or twenty hours.

"In the French counter attacks sometimes 3,000 would charge and a thousand of these would be killed or wounded. It was hard to get the wounded out. Those who were able to do so crawled back to the French trenches. Others lay out in the fields until help came, and often died. The stretcher bearers were not permitted to risk their own lives to get the wounded, and if shell fire kept up all day, keeping the stretcher bearers from going out after the wounded, they would dart out at night, loop a rope around the body of a wounded man, and from the shelter of a trench draw him in."

Mr. Bostwick said that the French ambulance drivers and stretcher bearers treated the French and German wounded with equal consideration, and he thought the Germans did likewise.

GENTRY BROS.

Famous Shows

Exhibits in Bryan Saturday. 4 combined shows to give afternoon and night performances and mile long street parade.

It has long been known in the circus world that the final aim of the GENTRY BROS. has been to own and operate BUT ONE GREAT TENTED AMUSEMENT ENTERPRISE, and now comes the interesting announcement that the FOUR GREAT GENTRY SHOWS have, at last, been merged into one splendid exhibition—a revelation, so to speak, in circusdom.

Of course you have either seen or heard of the GENTRY SHOWS before, for they have been successfully touring this country for THIRTY YEARS, and the entertainment they have offered during all this time, has been of a high standard, clean, refreshing and pleasing to the public.

By all means you should see the GENTRY SHOWS THIS YEAR for the reason that their performances will FAR SURPASS ANYTHING OF THE KIND YOU EVER SAW IN YOUR LIFE. You will be amply repaid for TAKING A DAY OFF AND BRINGING ALONG THE ENTIRE FAMILY.

The Show—THIS SEASON—is not only the biggest Gentry Bros. ever had, but it is undoubtedly the best, prettiest and cleanest show on the road. In a recent interview with one of the Gentry Brothers, who is in advance of the show, that gentleman said:

"We have always prided ourselves upon giving a strictly moral high-class and meritorious exhibition and have always numbered among our patrons the best people of every community. In fact we could not hope to exist without the patronage, support and endorsement of the refined and cultured. We make no appeal to the morbid or vulgar.

"Before you purchase a ticket we would like to have you inspect the crowd in front of our ticket wagons. In it you will find ministers of all churches and denominations, lawyers, bankers, doctors and merchants—ALL OUT FOR A HAPPY HOLIDAY WITH THEIR FAMILIES.

"Follow them inside and you will see them laugh until their sides hurt and you will next behold them astonished and amazed. Then you will wonder how in the world we ever put together such a wonderful show—one in which there is not a dull moment or a single tiresome 'fill-in' act. And after all you will be thoroughly enjoying YOURSELF, which is what you came to do.

"Judged solely from an amusement point of view there is absolutely nothing better—we have gone our limit this season and we are well satisfied, and you will be satisfied too when you see what a high limit we have reached. From an instructive, or educational point we TEACH A VALUABLE OBJECT LESSON to the children, to those growing up and to the grown ups as well.

"It is no use to attempt to describe this REMARKABLE EXHIBITION in an advertisement. We can't tell its story in a hundred phrases—YOU HAVE SIMPLY GOT TO SEE IT.

"You will have an opportunity to do this on the above mentioned date WHICH WILL BE THE ONLY VISIT of the GENTRY SHOWS to this part of the country for some time to come."

While you are about it you should see it all so start early enough so as not to miss seeing the BEAUTIFUL FREE STREET PARADE—a solid mile of "Gold and Glitter" which takes place every morning in each city visited.

SO SAYS GREAT IRISH NATIONALIST LEADER

The Talk of Conscription for Ireland Was Met by the Great Irish Leader John Redmond Who Said Such Action Would Bring On a Conflict—The Differences Between the German Chancellor and His Opponents Have Not Been Composed—Rumanians Invading Bulgaria Have Been Badly Defeated—Great Activity Has Been Resumed on Western Front Without Material Advantage to Either Side.

Waterford, Ireland, Oct. 6.—In a notable address to his constituents here this afternoon, John Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader in parliament, declared that despite the recent rebellion, with "all its aftermath of brutalities, stupidities and inflamed passions," home rule for Ireland is safe if Ireland remains sane. Redmond also declared that conscription could never be forced on Ireland. He said he did not believe the government would be insane enough to challenge a conflict with Ireland on that subject. It would be the most fatal thing that could happen, he said.

War Summary.

London, Oct. 6.—The British forces which recently crossed to the eastern bank of the Struma river on the Macedonian front have occupied the village of Nevolyen, it was announced officially by London. Coincident with this statement, Paris declares in the war office report, that "the Bulgarians on the Struma front in Macedonia are fleeing before the British."

Renewed activity on the Verdun front is reflected in another Paris statement, which says the Germans are shelling Poivre Hill. East of the Meuse and north of Verdun, on the Somme front, the artillery was active during the night.

The Russian troops made headway on the Galician front in the campaign for Lemberg, Petrograd's announcement says. They captured the Austro-German positions near Brzezany, southeast of the Galician capital. Counter attacks are holding up Russian offensive along the line to the north.

The Rumanian forces in Transylvania have been defeated by General Von Falkenhayn and driven back over the At river, according to the Berlin statement this afternoon.

German Chancellor Not Pacified.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—Efforts to compose the differences between Chancellor Von Bethmann-Holweg and his opponents in the Reichstag, which have been in progress since adjournment following the chancellor's speech, apparently have accomplished little. The chancellor's position, however, appears to be unshaken, and such information as is obtainable indicates the campaign for the resumption of submarine activity on the old basis met with no success.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—Fire today destroyed the Main Building, a six story structure of the Christian Brothers College here. All students are accounted for but two, and of the faculty, Brother Cornor, Brother Cormick aged ninety-three, and Brother Clemens aged seventy-two, are believed to have perished. MARRY WHITE MAN LEAVE AMERICA

Daughter of a Wealthy Chinese California Merchant Seeking Union in Lower California.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 6.—Intermarriage between whites and Orientals being forbidden in California, Miss Daisy Joe, aged 21, the daughter of a wealthy Chinese merchant of San Francisco, and William Wyatt, aged 23, an American, were en route Thursday to Ensenada, Lower California, by steamer to have a wedding ceremony performed at the Mexican port. The girl's father and a Los Angeles attorney are accompanying the couple.

According to federal authorities here, it is doubtful if the girl will be allowed to land at Ensenada on account of the Asiatic exclusion law in force there. Miss Joe claims that as an American citizen she has a right to land at a Mexican port and to return to a United States port. When the party returns Miss Joe will have to make good her claim to the immigration authorities or risk deportation to China.

SAYS CROP BELOW 11,367,000 BALES

President of Farmers' Union Says Top Crop is Smallest in History and Was Overestimated.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 4.—The present cotton crop will fall short of the 11,367,000-bale estimate issued Monday by the United States department of agriculture. According to Henry N. Pope, president of the Association of State Farmers Unions Presidents, the government's first estimate was for a crop of 14,000,000 bales, but this has been reduced 3,000,000 bales by the revised figures and is said to be caused by the climatic and pest damage, but according to President Pope these two factors are going to be instrumental in further reducing the revised estimate.

"The top crop, which is the smallest in history, has also been generally overestimated," said Mr. Pope, "and the present cotton crop while one of large acreage, is the smallest yield per acre within 20 years and the indications are it will bring the highest aggregate price of any crop in the history of the cotton industry. It is an established fact that small production is usually followed the next year by a large acreage and a heavy yield. The cotton farmer will never get out of debt nor will the tenant become a home owner until we get a reasonable price for a reasonable crop. Ever since the South has been planting 30,000,000 acres in cotton each year the cotton farmers have been selling cotton about 3 cents per pound less than cost to production. The only protection of a cotton farmer against a calamity of low price is in a 12-cent minimum by government or some agency capable of protecting it."

UPSHUR COUNTY NEGRO LYNCHED

(By Associated Press.)

Gilmer, Texas, Oct. 5.—Will Spence, a negro, was lynched last night near Graceton, in Upshur county. The body was found hanging to a tree riddled with bullets this morning. Spence, it is said, fought a pistol duel with Constable Harrell when the latter tried to serve a writ of attachment on him. Harrell was only slightly wounded. It is supposed the negro was taken from the jail last night by a mob of citizens after his arrest.

INSURANCE INSPECTOR VISITS BRYAN

State Fire Insurance Inspector Fred Wilson Makes Good Report of Conditions in City.

Mr. Fred Wilson of the state fire insurance commission spent yesterday and today in Bryan making an inspection of the condition of fire risks in this city. This gentleman finished his work today at noon and in his report to Austin will say that conditions here are in good shape. There was only one thing he found wrong and that was the fact that rubbish is allowed to remain in the rear of the business houses and in the alleys too long. This he was informed was done because of the fact that the city was only operating one trash wagon, while at least two should be in use. The matter was taken up with Mayor Harris, who told Mr. Wilson that owing to the depressed financial condition of the city it was unable to maintain two wagons, and it was recommended to the mayor that the business men of the city donate enough each month to maintain a second wagon, or else the key rate would be raised 3 cents on the $100. This the mayor is expected to investigate immediately.

Mr. Wilson was very loud in his praise of the services that have been rendered by Mr. John Daly, Jr., the local fire marshal. He said he attributes the general good condition of fire risks in Bryan to this gentleman's efforts, and he says that to change fire marshals would be the wrong thing to do, as Mr. Daly knows how to attend to the duties of this office and is doing what should be done.

Too much sympathy is wasted on old bachelors and spinsters.

Fortunate is the man whose tastes are similar to those of his cook.

GERMAN SUB GROUGHT
DEATH AND DESTRUCTION.

for Newport News. The fate of the British freighter was told in the following wireless from her commander, Captain Harden, to the naval radio station:

Steamer West Point Stopped and Shelled.

"British steamer West Point stopped by submarine and fired upon. Getting boats ready. Position 40.25 north, 69 west. Get cutter."

Later messages gave further details. One stated that the steamer was being shelled by the submarine when the message was sent at 11:15 a. m. A third message said the vessel was attacked at 10:40 10 miles south of Nantucket. The steamer Kansas picked up the distress signals of the West Point and proceeded to her assistance. The Boston navy yard at 1:30 received a message from the Kansas stating that the West Point was sinking and that the Kansas was going to her aid. The disabled vessel was then 55 miles distant and the Kansas was making 12 knots.

Later a private dispatch said the submarine, after stopping the West Point, ordered the crew into the small boats. The crew abandoned the ship, which was then torpedoed.

Meantime the American line steamship Philadelphia, which left New York Saturday for Liverpool, had gotten within the war zone and an S. O. S. wireless message was received by her commander. He held his course for the east.

Two More Vessels Sunk.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—Two more British steamers have been sunk.

One was the Dutch steamer Bloomersdijk and the other the Norwegian steamer Christian Knudsen.

The crews of both vessels were picked up by the American torpedo boat destroyer Drayton and are being brought into Newport.

Rumor Says Fleet of Subs Off Coast.

During Sunday no word came from the British and French patrol vessels which have been watching the Atlantic coast, from which vessels of the entente allies with munitions of war have daily set out.

Many rumors were afloat Sunday, including one that a fleet of German submarines were off the coast.

Another had it that the Germans had established a submarine base on the Canadian coast.

Another speculation was that supply ships were keeping up with the U-53. Those who held to the latter opinion pointed out that the submarine, after ostensibly cruising the Atlantic unassisted, arrived at Newport fully provisioned for three months and not requiring fuel or so much as a jug of water.

The booming of the submarine's guns, apparently fired in warning, was distinctly heard at Nantucket. But where the submersible was at the moment these reports were heard was speculation. It was plain, however, that she had placed herself in the lane of passenger and freight traffic and terrorized shipping along the coast.

After the first distress signals of the West Point were sent broadcast wireless messages were sent up and down the coast and far out to sea warning everything afloat that a German submarine was operating in the steamer lane.

Every vessel equipped with wireless was warned to make for the three-mile zone and the commanders of merchant vessels of the entente allies lost no time in shifting their courses.

The Frederick VIII of the Scandinavian-American line, which is bringing home James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, and Mrs. Gerard, was 600 miles east of New York at noon Sunday. Assurance that the ambassador and his wife were on a neutral vessel was given to inquiring friends by the press.

SUB RAID SENT
PRICES TUMBLING

Prices Reacted as Realization of the Greater Difficulty in Exports Dawned on Business.

New York, Oct. 10.—A wave of selling hit the cotton market at the opening Monday, causing a break of from 8 to 32 points from Saturday's close. Fear of difficulties in making cotton exports, due to the presence of German submarines, was responsible.

Later prices fell to a net loss of 29 to 49 points, with March contracts selling at 16.88, or very nearly $2.50 a bale under the closing price of Saturday. The trade interests were active buyers on the decline, leading to rallies of several points shortly after the opening, but the tone was nervous and unsettled.

Liverpool was firm and higher, as it was felt that lack of shipments from this side naturally would cause an appreciation in the value of the present supply abroad.

Slump Felt in Grain Market.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Submarine activity resulted Monday in a downward crash of wheat values. The break right at the star amounted to 4½ cents a bushel in some cases, December falling to $1.55, as compared with $1.59½ at Saturday's finish.

Prices of corn, oats and provisions fell, but not to so radical a degree as in the case of wheat.

Greatly increased difficulties in making exports was the generally accepted reason for all of the declines.

Stocks Were Demoralized Badly.

New York, Oct. 10.—The stock market was demoralized at Monday's opening. Standard issues as well as war stocks broke 5, 10 and even 12 points, at the outset on enormous liquidation. The break was attributed to the German submarine activities and their possible consequences.

After the most exciting half hour seen in the stock market since the panic of 1907, the tide of liquidation was stemmed by heavy volume of buying orders reported to have been sent to the market by important banking interests.

Near Panic in New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, Oct. 10.—Exciting selling greeted the news of submarine activity in American waters on the opening of the cotton market Monday and prices slumped 46 to 65 points before the first call was over. This was a drop of about $2.25 to $3.25 a bale, one of the sharpest slumps of this season.

Much of the selling was from holders of long contracts who feared consequences of the submarine activity on exports of cotton. Prominent bull sh traders were heavy buyers at the decline, checking the downward movement. Prices reacted to within 10 to 16 points of last week's close.

FIRE DEPARTMENT
MONTHLY MEETING

Results of Inspection as to Fire Hazards and Some Good Suggestions Offered.

At the regular monthly meeting of the fire department held last night some good reports were made by the firemen who during the past week have inspected the mercantile buildings of the city. With few exceptions these reports were favorable to the different occupants.

The majority of the inspections show that most of the elevator openings are not protected with guard rails as they should be. In most cases gasoline and other volatile oils are kept in ordinary cans instead of safety cans. In several stores on the second floors large quantities of loose paper, excelsior and other packing materials were found in corners or scattered over the floors. In one place several barrels of loose cotton is kept. Less than six stores in the entire town are provided with chemical extinguishers. Stoves in restaurants are without zinc or other metal protectors under them. In two cases, where the buildings are equipped with private fire hose, this hose was found to be worthless. In other place the porter had a large quantity of paper piled around his heater. He said this was to start fires with, and it was in the right place to do that very thing, but in the building instead of the stove.

These inspections were made by us, not with a view to finding fault, but with a desire to reduce the fire risk and loss and thereby reduce the insurance rate. Believing that all will co-operate with us, you are asked to carefully examine your premises and if any of the above ills are there, remove them at once. Get a safety can for your gasoline, bisulphide of carbon, etc. Buy chemical extinguishers or Pyrene. Have your broken windows repaired and clean out the dark corners.

We are working for the interest of every property owner and hope that all will do what they can to help us. Respectfully,

BRYAN FIRE DEPT.

MOTOR TRUCKS IN ARMY TO STAY

Regardless of the Efficiency of the Mule, Officers Say the Gas Machines Will Remain.

(By Associated Press.) Laredo, Texas, Oct. 10.—High powered army motor trucks passing through the streets of Laredo have not, according to local army officials, infrequently demonstrated the efficiency of electricity and gasoline as utilized in modern warfare and drills. Another army officer, however, remarked that the army mule was here to stay and would never be superseded by any class of motor truck or motorcycle.

The remark was occasioned by the fact that several big mules with machine equipment strapped to their backs easily made the ascent up the river banks, while motorcycles and like equipment were compelled to detour before they could join their regiments on their marches.

Now the Colonel is to make a tour of the country, asking the people to put their faith in the party which four years ago he denounced as unworthy of trust.—Macon Telegraph.
